

The War Goes On

Featuring Iraq War Veteran and Resister Camilo Mejia

First U.S. veteran of the Iraq War to publicly refuse further service

*I was afraid of waking up one morning to realize my humanity had abandoned me.
... By putting my weapon down, I chose to reassert myself as a human being.*

-- Camilo Mejia

Sunday, March 20, 4:00 p.m.
Unitarian Universalist Church
505 E. Charleston Road, Palo Alto

Mark the 8th anniversary of the U.S. war in Iraq:
a war that continues in its destructive violence on the ground, as well as in the physical, emotional, moral and spiritual suffering inflicted on the Iraqi people,
U.S. military personnel, and families of fallen soldiers.

Responding Panel:

Karen Meredith – Gold Star Mother whose son was killed in Iraq

Paul George – Director, Peninsula Peace and Justice Center

Ben Daniel – minister and writer of faith-based social & political commentary

Free and open to the public -- Donations gratefully received!

Sponsored by Multifaith Voices for Peace and Justice, the Peninsula Peace and Justice Center, American Muslim Voice, Los Altos Voices for Peace, Veterans for Peace Chapter 101, Unitarian Universalist Church of PA Action Council, First Presbyterian Church of Palo Alto, West Bay Chapter of the Buddhist Peace Fellowship, First United Methodist Church Outreach Committee, Stanford Says No to War, Network of Spiritual Progressives.

Visit www.multifaithpeace.org for more information